

Nesting Table

Description

This rectangular nesting table from D.B Imports is an ideal choice for those looking to add a unique, industrial-inspired touch to their space. Crafted with metal legs and a mango wood top, this piece provides both ample storage and workspace in any area, even small homes or apartments. Its rectangular shape allows it to fit into corners or tight areas easily while its powder coat gray base lends the perfect finishing touch. This nesting table features a powder white base. Designed to nest perfectly within the base of its large table companion (item 7210-B), this nesting table is sure to be eye-catching addition that brings a modern aesthetic wherever it goes.
