

Round Nesting Table

Description

The round nesting table from D.B Imports is the perfect blend of antique charm and modern style. This table features a distressed pine brown top, contrasting against its antique gray metal base to create an eye-catching look that's sure to be a conversation piece in any room. The round design allows it to fit easily into tight spaces, making it perfect for small apartments and homes without taking up too much space when not in use. Whether you're looking for additional seating or just want an extra surface for displaying your favorite decor pieces, this nesting table is guaranteed to add a unique touch of sophistication to your retail or living space. This collection features surfaces constructed from Mango Wood - a dense, durable and gorgeous sustainable wood. This nesting table fits perfectly within the base frame of its companion large table. Pair with its nesting table companion (item 7210-W).
