

Small Nesting Table

Description

Our small nesting table is the perfect accent piece for any home or business setting. Crafted from wood and set atop a sturdy metal base, this beautiful white-finished design adds rustic charm to any space. Intelligently designed to nest within each other when not in use, these tables provide great flexibility and are perfect for end tables in your living room or tucked away in a corner nook. Durable enough for years of reliable use, you're sure to love having them around as an extra surface just when you need it most.
